The first step involves recognizing who or what the cartoon depicts. Is it a political figure, an event, a policy, or societal issue? Clear identification sets the foundation for further analysis.

Example: If the cartoon features a caricature of a politician with a distinctive hairstyle, identifying that figure is crucial. If it depicts a protest, understanding the nature of that protest is essential.

Questions to Ask:

- When was the cartoon created?
- What events or issues were prominent at that time?
- Who was the target audience?
